

Enquiry Information

Type of Enquiry	Where Information can be Found
If you are looking for information about specific soldiers who served in the Royal Lincolnshire Regiment	The Regimental Museum does not hold any personal service records therefore we cannot give enquirers any information relating to a soldiers service in the Lincolnshire Regiment. Service records can be obtained as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Officers or Soldiers whose regular or reserve service ended before 1921 - The National Archives • Officers or Soldiers whose regular or reserve service ended between 1921 and 1997 - Army Personnel Centre If the soldier served during the First World War, The National Archives website www.nationalarchives.gov.uk enables access to medal cards, which should give details of the medals awarded, the regiment or other unit/corps and the service number.
If you are looking for information about the regiment's actions on a given day or during a given period of time. For 'War Diaries' see next section	Information relating to the regiment's general history is covered very well in 'The Poachers' by David Nalson. If you are seeking information relating to the First World War it is comprehensively covered by 'The History of the Lincolnshire Regiment' by Major-General Simpson.
If you are looking for information that maybe contained in the Regimental Archives.	The Lincolnshire Regiment's archival collection is now held at Lincolnshire Archives. This collection includes the First World War Diaries, many photograph albums, newspaper cuttings, personal reports/diaries, letters and regimental history books as well as many other items. To access the collection or request research please contact Adrian Wilkinson at Lincolnshire Archives lincolnshire_archive.gov.uk
If you are looking for information about soldiers killed in the two world wars	For servicemen who died in either of the two world wars, you can search the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website www.cwgc.org.uk this can be accessed free of charge at Lincoln Central Library.
If your enquiry is regarding the Regimental Museum Collections	Please contact: Caroline Frisby, Collections Officer (Regimental) at: Lincolnshire Archives St Rumbold Street, LN2 5AB 01522 521754 caroline.frisby@lincolnshire.gov.uk